HILARIOUS WINS THE TIDAL

JOE MADDEN MEETS WITH MISHAP AND FAY ETTE FINISHES SECOND.

Decision of Race Leads to Belief That Fitz Herber Is Superior of Hilarious-Big Crowd Sees Racing Under Ideal Conditions.

New York, June 26.—Hilarious again defeated Fayette and Joe Madden, his persistent rivals for this season's three-year-old stake honors, in the $20,000 Tidal Stakes at Sheepshead Bay today, and the great coll's victory was marked by even less effort than had attended either of his preceding easily achieved triumphs over the pair. The quartet of starters also included County Fair, an inconsequential candidate, running for the first time in the name and colors of Miss Marrone, who had acquired him for $1.300 a few hours previously. First place was generally conceeded to James R. Keene's brilliant son of other and Harpschord, athough the consequence of the consequence of the color of the Hilarious dominated the running throughout. He nade a sort of a bobble midway of the stretch, nd close observers said that Scoyille was kicking im at this point. If so, Hilarious probably was oafing and Scoyille, mindful of Mr. Keene's orders, ecided to take no chances. Hilarious' early fractional time, with stake weight up, was considered narvelously fast, but there was a marked slowing lown in the last quarter, which may be an indication of doubtful stamina on the part of the winner. It is generally believed that Fitz Herbert is his su-erior.

is generally believed that Fitz Herbert is his superior.

Fayette was always in closest attendance to Hilatious and surprised the spectators by declayely stalling off Joe Madden's challenge for second. It subsequently developed that Hildreth's horse had been jumped upon in the race and he pulled up lame. The injury was on the pastern of his right forder, where a swelling the size of a hen's eag; was viscolated by the state of the size of the size

New York Gets Cheering Announcement to That Effect from the Pacific Coast.

New York, June 26.—From the most authoritative sourse possible, excepting Thomas H. EARNINGS OF THE LEADING STABLE OF THE YEAR

Sam Hildreth failed to land the rich Tidal Stakes yesterday, but he has done so remarkably well that his stable earnings are now in excess of his total of $104,105 for 1908. So far as eastern racing is concerned he is now closely pressed by James R. Keene, but no other owner is near the two leaders. FITZ HERBERT SLIGHTLY INJURED

New York, June 26.—It develops that during the running of the Suburban Fitz Herbert cut himself slightly. The injury was so trivial that it will not affect his preparation for the Lawrence Realization, in which ke will be called upon to meet Hilarions, the pride of the Keene stable. The New York racing public is manifesting a keen interest in the prospective meeting of the pair.

Allee, running a good race, landed third money. The Bedwell colors were also carried to victory in the fifth race when Fireball took the purse from Righteasy. Mr. Winn stated that racing in New York is in healthy shape and that the personnel of the attendance is far superior to that of former years. There is no molestation on any of the courses by over-zealous police, he says, and the different associations are doing all in their power to live up to the law. The Yonkers meeting, Mr. Winn expects, will be one of the best in the east and will be marked by continuous racing. Regarding Mexican racing at Juarez, Mr. Winn said that the architects and builders are steadily at work shaping up the track and buildings and that everything soulder in the prompt of the colt's stake engagement, the judges ordered the horse's withdrawal.

HAMILTON HAS RECORD-BREAKING CROWD. Creel Takes the Tuckett Stakes from Centre Shot in Hotly Contested Finish.

Hamilton, Ont., June 26.—The largest gathering that ever witnessed a race run over the Hamilton Jockey Club's course turned out this afternoon. The crowd packed every available bit of space on the grounds. Intense heat robbed the sport of much of its pleasure. The sun's ray's were fiercely hot and the layers found their lot especially uncomfortable. Half a dozen persons were overcome by the heat on the lawns where the layers assemble. The program was one of the best ever provided here, and certainly the best of the meeting. TRAINING OPERATIONS AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., June 26.—There are less than a dozen horses in training at the Kentucky Association track and they are for the most part two-year-olds that were handled only enough to make them bridle-wise as yearlings. "Georgetown" Johnson, the colored trainer, has five such. He expects to get them ready to race for the small purses at various fairs in this state. Price Kimball, son of former Congressman W. P. Kimball, has an Ogden filly that may develop into a good racing tool this fall. She has been at the track less than a fortnight and Wednesday afternoon, in going that was sticky, she ran a quarter of a mile in 254 with 126 pounds up. Fletcher Driver has begun becaking the yearings at Walnut Hill Fatin. The state of the coming week he will take up six more. "These youngsters are for the most part by Wadsworth.

YOUNG LIKELY TO RACE HIS YEARLINGS.

Former Owner of McGrathiana Stud Optimistic Over Future of Racing.

Lexington, Ky., June 26.—Colonel Milton Young, member of the State Racing Commission, who dispersed his McGrathiana Stud last fall, has not forsaken the ranks of the breeders of thoroughbreds, and it is likely that his colors will again be seen in racing in 1910. Out of the dispersal Colonel Youg saved, or, rather, bought, thirty-six marres, the stallion, Woolsthorpe, and eleven weanlings, the stallion, Woolsthorpe, and eleven weanlings, This spring he leased the farm of John Gorham, on the Newtown road, and established the mares there. A number of them were in foal to Cosarion, and he now has running at the feet of their dams some twenty sucklings. The eleven head bought as weanlings have grown into as uniformly good-looking a lot as are owned by any breeder in this section. Though still undecided as to whether he will send these yearlings to Sheepshead Bay to be sold in September, or keep them and have them trained as two-year-olds, Colonel Young seems inclined to the latter course. He is optimistic as to the future of racing.

LEXINGTON MAY HAVE FALL MEETING.

Stakes of the Kentucky Association Fill to the Satisfaction of Its Officials.

Lexington, Ky., June 26.—Barring the fact that no nominations were received from James B. Haggin, August Belmont, James R. Keene and John E. Maden. owners of the four most extensive and most pretentious thoroughbred establishments in Kentucky, cutries for the four stakes that closed on Millson and other members of the Keet and most pretentious thoroughbred establishments in Kentucky, were satisfactory to Acting Sevench, which was a constant on the Keet and Millson and other members of the Keet and Millson and the same of the Keet and Millson and tenes and the same of the Keet and Millson and tenes (heart of the Keet and Ke for which all except use measurements for which all except use money horses in the handicap will be eligible upon payment of $25 each to start. Mr. Wilson's estimate of the probable value of the handicap is $2,500.

In the near future there will be a meeting of the directors of the Kentucky Association to discuss their affairs in general, to order certain repairs and necessary improvements at the course with a view to making it more attractive as a winter training ground and to discuss the advisability of giving a fall meeting. President Camden last spring expressed the opinion that there would be no racing here this fall, but some of the directors feel that if there is not sufficient occupation for horses elsewhere, there should be at least six days' sport here late in October or early in November.

BETTING ON SUBURBAN DAY.

New York, June 26.—Those who cared to have a "rooting" interest in the result of the Suburban Handicap and its fine sidelights at Sheepshead Bay Thursday—and the rumber was by no means small—did not go to the betting ring for action. They got as close, however, the context of the state of s and it was not very difficult to see how the market stood. Then, providing credit were good, a financial interest in the approaching contest was established quickly.

There were a few, a very few, who stood around disconsolately, apparently unable to get any money down. They may not have known anyone who offered odds. On the other hand they may not have had any money.

Some real cash may have changed hands here and have in the side throng. It was not done evenly

Some real cash may have changed hands here and there in the big throng. It was not done openly, however, the bettors preserving a discreet respect for the law that drove them out of the betting ring more than a year ago.

KENTUCKY YEARLINGS OF GOOD QUALITY.

Lexington, Ky. June 26.—Other than the shipment of yearlings to the eastern auctions which are to open in the Fasig-Tipton Company's paddocks at Sheepshead Bay next Wednesday with the sale of the consignments from Dixlana, Raceland, Runnynede, Hartland, Meadowthorpe and Edenwold Studs, there is very little activity in thoroughbred circles in the blue grass region at his time.

The yearlings going out from here this summer possess more quality, are of a higher type and fewer in number than in any season since 1895. They represent the cream of the product of the breeding establishments, the poor ones having been sold off at weaning time, in many instances without pedigree or identification, because of the panicky situation following the passing of repressionary laws in New York, Louisiana and California.

The breeders, greatly encouraged by the unexpectedly rapid reliabilitation of racing at the New of Hiles feeling that fair prices will obtain. There are none in the ranks of the farm owners who hope or expect any such fancy prices as were received for the stars of their collections three, four and five years back. If any man should sell a yearling for a price into the five figures this year, it will be cause for rejoicing throughout the blue grass region and that breeder will be showered with congratulations on his home coming.

MANITOBA TO HAVE A FUTURITY.

The directors of the Winnipeg Industrial Exhibi-tion have decided to inaugurate a futurity of the guaranteed value of $1,000 as an annual fixture for thoroughbred foals. The race will be for three-year-olds, owned, foaled, raced and trained in western Canada. Maidens allowed five pounds; winners of $500 or more, five pounds extra. Entries to close September 1, 1909. $5 to enter, $10 in 1910 and 1911, and $25 to start.

GOOD ENTRIES FOR EMPIRE CITY MEETING.

All the Stars of the Time Entered in Its Stakes, with Many Western Horses Included.

Eleven stakes offered by the Empire City Racing Association of Yonkers, New York, which closed for entries June 15, received a total of 335 nominations, of which twenty-eight were void, leaving 337 eligible to start. Western owners are represented to a noticeable degree, George J. Long, Thomas C. McDowell, Barney Schreiber, W. F., Schulte, W. J. Young, George H. Holle, William Gerst, E. R. Bradley, Woodford Clay, W. H. Fizer, J. N. Camden, J. T. Ireland, S. C. Hildreth and J. E. Madden being all represented. In one item the Empire City Racing Association is lucky. It has no long-established stakes of great value hanging over from former years, as had the Westehester Racing Association, Brooklyn Jockey Club, Coney Island Jockey Club and Saratoga Association, the result being that its stake obligations are confined to the modest list recently closed. These, their values, distances and entries eligible are:

For three-year-olds and over—

Empire City Handicap, $5.000 guaranteed;

Empire City Handicap, $5,000 guaranteed; 1-1-8 miles
Youkers Handicap, $2,500 guaranteed; 1-1-16 miles
Mount Vernon Handicap, $2,500 guaranteed; 1-1-16
Heletwing Handicap, $1,500 guaranteed; 3-4 mile

53 mile Midsummer Stakes, $1,500 guaranteed; 1 18 miles Arrow Stakes, $1,000 added; 3-4 mile.....

or three-year-olds—
Knickerbocker Handicap, $1,000 added; 3-4 Whirl Stakes, $1,000 added: 1 mile..... Tarrytown Stakes, $1,000 added: 1 mile.....

For two-year-olds—
Wakefield Stakes, $1,000 added; 5 1-2 furlongs 41
Frivolity Stakes, $1,000 added; 5 1-2 furlongs 44
Although the youngest of all New York racing associations the Empire City Association already stands high in the esteem of the metropolitan racing patrons, and its meeting holds out advance promise of high-class sport, such good horses of the day as Live Wire, Restigouche, King James, Fliz Herhert, Joe Madden, Celt. LATONIA'S REDUCTION OF PURSES.

President Myers, Explaining Action Taken, Says Jockey Club Has Made No Money.

Cincinnati, O., June 26.—The purses that will be bung up during the extension of the Latonia meeting will not exceed $2,000 daily, and will not fail below a total of $1,800. In explanation of the reduction President Harvey Myers says the Latonia Jockey Club has made no money this spring. "Unless we get a good break in the weather," he declares, "the additional days do not promise much. The ring has never paid the purses, and it is figured that if twelve books continue the track has a chance to make a little money."

Present at the meeting which decided on the reduction were Congressman Joseph L. Rhinock, Harvey Myers and John Hachmeister. The book for the extension will give some of the horses a chance to run that were tossed out frequently during the regular meeting.

DEATH OF SIR DANIEL COOPER

One of England's leading turfmen and a man of great worth, Sir Daniel Cooper, died Sunday, June 13. He was Australian born and a man of wealth, culture and wide travel. Long associated with English racing, he was very successful in recent years on the turf, especially with the fine filles Flair and Lesbia, full sisters. Flair won the One Thousand and after Lesbia had, when a two-year-old, won the Prince of Wales Plate at York, Champagne Stakes at Doncaster, Buckenham Stakes at Newmarket, dead-heated with Vamose in the Imperial Produce Plate at Kempton Park and won the Middle Park Plate, a great three-year-old career was expected for her, but she was unplaced in Rhodora's One Thousand, and although winner of several stakes was considered a disappointment. Sir Daniel was a prominent and influential member of the Jockey Club, and his death comes as a great shock to the turf world.

SCARPIA MAY BE GOOD COLT.

New York, June 26.—Scarpia, winner of the race for maiden two-year-olds at Sheepshead Bay, Thurs day, is looked upon as a likely sort of colt. He is a Broomstick that runs to his looks, and it is probable that he will be one of the Chelsea Stable's nominations for the Saratoza Special.

Scarpia was bred by Sanford Lyne at Larchmont Stud and was sold to Mr. Le Montagne last summer for $1.800. His dam was ida Ford, a well-bred mare on American lines.

Scarpia is in the Great Trial Stakes and the second part of the Double Event, in both of which fixtures he probably will keep his engagement.

ELLISON SELLS HIS HORSES.

Cincinnati. O., June 26.—C. R. Ellison of Chl-cago, who has figured prominently on the turf as a racing owner for years, today sold to G. W. Carmack the horses Royal Tourist, Westbury and Jacobite, which represented the extent of his thoroughbred holdings this summer. The consideration is said to have been $8,500. The horses will be shipped from Latonia to Canada and will be campaigned on the New York tracks later on. Ellison is said to be at Hot Springs at present, and it is reported that he has decided to forsake the turf and embark in busi-ness.

RACES AT OGDEN FAIR IN SEPTEMBER.

hibither the foundatin Fair Association for the annual four-state for to be held at Ogden, commencing September 6 and continuing five days thereafter, contains, in addition to the usual stock exhibits, etc., provisions of for racing.

There will be four running races daily, including and a harness race with a value of $500.
